

A large, colorful charcuterie board is the background of the image. It is filled with a variety of foods: sliced meats like salami and prosciutto, several types of cheese (including a wedge of brie and a block of cheddar), fresh fruits such as strawberries, blueberries, raspberries, and orange slices, and vegetables like cucumber sticks and cherry tomatoes. There are also dips in small bowls, including a bright orange hummus and a yellow mustard-based dip. Crackers, bread, and nuts are scattered throughout the arrangement. A central pink circle contains the text "Nibble + Nourish".

Important Stuff

Each Grazing Table also includes fresh florals and greenery and use of our inventory such as boards, platters, props, cheese knives. We will return to pick up our cleaned inventory the following business day at an agreed time. If required we can return to pack up after an event, at an additional cost.

All our grazing tables include Nibble and Nourish staff to attend the event location 45 minutes - 1 hour ahead of guests arrival to set up. We prefer allocated car parking close to the entry so that we can swiftly move our food coolers and equipment into the venue and then we are more than happy to move, if required.

Nibble and Nourish hand select items on each of our spreads according to season and availability, therefore, items may vary.

Our grazing tables are generously portioned however, are not designed to cater for a full meal. If you wish to increase the amount of food, we recommend going up a size or adding extras. Chat to us about any additions or customisations.
